

Call of the Wild website.

You will create a Call of the Wild website on Weebly. Your website account will be created by your teacher.

Your website will have four pages.

1. Home: The page that will introduce your site and tell the viewer what it's all about. It will also have the MLA citation for the edition of the book that you are using.
2. Chapter summaries: This will have a separate summary for each of the six chapters in the book. Each summary will discuss five different things that happen in each chapter.
3. Characters: This page will have a brief description of each of the characters in the book.
4. Vocabulary: This page will have a list of new vocabulary, 10 words from each chapter with the word, its definition, the sentence it is used in, and the page number where you found it.

All of this will be written in full sentences, using your own words. Any copy-paste language will result in a "0" for the entire project.

How will it be marked?
